BYLAWS

CHAPTER I MEMBERSHIP

Section 1                      Classification

The members of this Association shall be classified as follows:

- a) Active members
- b) Retired members
- c) Graduate Student Member
- d) Out of State Member
- e) Faculty Member
- f) Lifetime Member

Section 2                      Qualifications

- a) Active Member: A dentist, practicing or residing in Florida, may be classified as an Active Member on nomination by the Executive Council and election by the membership. Members must meet the requirements of the American Dental Association, the State of Florida for the specialty of Periodontics and must be in good standing with the Board of Dentistry.
- b) Retired Member: An Active Member, in good standing with this Association, who has retired, after twenty-five years of continuous membership, and does not earn any income from private practice, or an Active Member who has retired because of ill health, and does not earn any income from private practice, may be classified as a Retired Member by petitioning the Executive Council to transfer to this category. Retired members will be required to pay a registration fee determined by the Executive Council and not be required to pay dues. Retired Members will not be allowed to vote. Retired Members, who meet the above criteria, who also teach part time, (two days per week or less), may be considered for this membership classification.
- c) Graduate Student Member: A full time Graduate Student or Resident in good standing at an American Dental Association Accredited Periodontal Program may become a Graduate Student Member upon compliance with the application process. An application fee shall be assessed by the Executive Council. Graduate Student Members will not be required to pay dues and will not be allowed to vote. Graduate Student Members in good standing may extend their non-voting status for one year following completion of a graduate program.
- d) Out of State Member: A dentist, practicing out of the State of Florida, may be classified as an Out of State Member on nomination by the Executive Council and election by the membership. Out of State Members must meet the requirements of the American Dental Association, the State of Florida for specialty in Periodontics and must be members in good standing with the Board of Dentistry. Dues shall be the same as for Active Members. Out of State Members will not be allowed to vote.
- e) Faculty Member: A full time faculty member in the Department of Periodontics at The University of Florida College of Dentistry or Nova Southeast School of Dentistry who holds a DDS, DMD or equivalent degree and has completed an advanced training program in Periodontology may be classified as a Faculty Member on nomination by the Executive Council and election by the membership. Faculty members shall be allowed to vote, serve on committees and as officers in the Association. "Full time" shall mean that an applicant is employed by one of Florida's ADA/CODA accredited dental schools for a minimum of four days per week. The applicant may not be engaged in the private practice of dentistry, except participation in the faculty or intramural practice at the dental school. Dues shall be the same as determined for Active Members. This membership category is intended to accommodate periodontists serving on the faculty of Florida dental schools, who may not meet the criteria for Active Membership but have comparable education and training.
- f) Lifetime Member: An active member who has been a member for 30 continuous years without interruption may be classified as a Lifetime Member. These members will not pay dues, but will pay a meeting registration fee determined by the FAP Executive Council.

Section 3                    Election to Membership

Prospective members must submit an FAP Membership Application to the Florida Association of Periodontists office.

The FAP Secretary shall receive a copy of all membership applications prior to each FAP Executive Council Meeting for review and present applications to the FAP Executive Council for consideration. The FAP Executive Council will vote on each application and acceptance to membership is dependent on a 2/3 majority vote by the FAP Executive Council. If majority vote is not reached, the FAP Executive Council must go into executive session.

The FAP Membership Chair shall announce and recognize new members at the FAP Business Meeting.

Those accepted into membership in this Association shall be eligible for the privileges of membership upon payment of initiation fees and dues.

Section 4                    In Good Standing

Active Members who fail to meet the standards of ethics of the American Dental Association, or who fail to meet financial obligations of the Association may be expelled by the Executive Council.

Section 5                    Privileges of Membership

(a)            Active Members:

Shall have all the privileges of the Association including the right to vote, make nominations and hold office.

Section 6                    Resignation of Membership

Membership may be voluntarily terminated by written request.

CHAPTER II            GOVERNING BODY

Section 1                    Composition

The governing body of this Association shall be the active members.

Section 2                    Powers

The membership shall have the following powers:

- a) It shall be the supreme legislative body of this Association;
- b) It shall have the power to enact, amend or repeal the Constitution and Bylaws of the Association;
- c) It shall have the power to elect all members of the Association;
- d) It shall have the power to elect the officers;
- e) It shall have the power to elect the members of the Executive Council;
- f) It shall have the power to approve any change in dues and/or assessments recommended by the Executive Council

Section 3                    Committees of the Membership

- a) Nominating Committee-The Executive Council serves as the standing Nominating Committee. The membership present and voting at the first business meeting of the calendar year may also nominate candidates for election.

CHAPTER III           EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Section 1                    Name and Composition

The administrative body of this Association shall be the Executive Council which shall be composed of the President, President Elect, Secretary/Treasurer, Immediate Past President and two Members at Large, all elected by and from the membership. The Officers and Members at Large shall be elected at the first business meeting of the calendar year.

Section 2                    Term of Office

The Officers of this Association serving on the Executive Council shall serve in such capacity as long as they hold their respective offices in the Association. The elected members shall serve for a term of one year. No elected members shall serve two consecutive terms.

Section 3                    Officers of the Executive Council

The President shall serve as Chairman of the Executive Council and the Secretary of the Association shall serve as Secretary of the Executive Council.

Section 4                    Powers and Duties

The Executive Council shall have all administrative duties and powers except those specifically reserved to the membership by these Bylaws.

Section 5                    Sessions

The Executive Council shall convene at the meetings of the Association at a time and place designated by the President.

The rules contained in American Institute of Parliamentarians Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedures shall govern the deliberations of the Executive Council in all cases when they do not conflict with standing rules or with the Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 8                    Duties

The Executive Council will receive reports of Officers and Committees and carry on any and all business of the Association which may be brought before it.

Section 9                    Committees

Special committees may be appointed by the president subject to the approval of the Executive Council. The committees appointed will consist of a minimum of three active members of the Association.

Section 10                    Consultants

Consultants may be appointed by the President, subject to approval of the Executive Council. Consultants shall be non-voting Ex Officio members of the Executive Council.

CHAPTER IV            ELECTIVE OFFICERS

Section 1                    Name and Number

The elective officers of this Association shall be a President, a President Elect, a Secretary/Treasurer, a First Member at Large, a Second Member-at-Large and Immediate Past President.

Section 2                    Term of Office

All officers shall hold office from the Annual Meeting at which they were elected until the following Annual Meeting when their successors are duly elected and installed.

Section 3                    Nomination and Election

Elective officers shall be nominated by the Executive Council or from the floor by any member. The Executive Council shall encourage the membership to consider geographical rotation when nominating members for elective office. Elections will be conducted during the first business meeting of the calendar year.

Section 4                      Vacancies

In the event any office becomes vacant; the Executive Council shall appoint a successor pro tem to serve until the next Annual Meeting when a successor shall be elected.

Section 5                      Duties

(a)                      President:

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association, appoint all standing committees and special committees subject to the approval of the Executive Council. He/She shall have general supervision of the work of all committees and shall have the power to remove and replace any committee member at any time for just cause. He/She shall perform such duties as required by these Bylaws or outlined in Sturgis Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure, Revised. The President shall select the programs for meetings after taking office in February and serve as program chairperson for these meetings.

(b)                      President Elect:

The President Elect shall preside over any meeting when the President is unable to attend. He/She will coordinate exhibitors for each meeting and assist the Executive Director in maintaining annual contracts with vendors. The President Elect will plan the programs for the annual meetings during their future term as President. He/She shall perform such other duties as are assigned by these Bylaws, the Executive Council or Membership.

(c)                      Secretary/Treasurer:

The Secretary/Treasurer shall maintain accurate records of all meetings of the Association and the Executive Council and preserve the Minutes of such meetings with assistance from the Executive Director. He/She shall serve as custodian of all monies and financial assets of the Association and shall hold, invest, or disburse same subject to the direction of the Executive Council. He/She shall perform such other duties as are assigned by these Bylaws, the Executive Council or Membership.
